Mariner's Choice Delivers Initial Shipment to Private Label Partner

Jacksonville, Fla. -- April 2, 2009 -- Mariner's Choice International Inc. (Pink Sheets: MCII) today announced that it has fulfilled an initial product shipment to a large private label retail account. Mariner's Choice is a North American manufacturer of high-performance, "green" eco-safe products to the industrial, commercial and retail market sectors.

This significant opportunity rolls out two "green" auto-care products into over 175 stores of a well-established Canadian national retailer with multiple chains. The chains represent a total of more than 2,000 outlets throughout North America. It is anticipated that four more products will be added in the next quarter.

Mariner's Choice continues to grow its private label portfolio with proven customized eco-safe solutions that cater to many diverse vertical markets. The Company has established itself as the center for "Green Product Intelligence", offering high-performance ecological solutions. The Company's management team has over 30 years of combined experience in the environmental and biodegradable solutions business. Mariner's Choice is currently working with three other retail partners to complete the design, packaging and formulas to be introduced in the near future.
